

With ACL around the corner and other Austin events being planned for the fall, we thought it might be helpful to highlight a few ways to get around our amazing city. From public transportation to pedicabs to various ridesharing sources, visitors have several ways to enjoy all that Austin has to offer.

Bike Sharing

Austin is a bike friendly city with miles and miles of bike lanes. With bike stations located around downtown Austin, Austin B-cycle is a convenient option to tour the city.

 Austin B-cycle

MetroBus

Capital Metro's bus routes offer an accessible transportation option by connecting downtown Austin with the surrounding Austin area.

CarSharing

Only need a car for a short amount of time? Austin visitors can use Car2go and Zipcar on an as needed basis.

 Car2go

 Zipcar

MetroRail

Catch a ride on a 32-mile line that stretches from Leander to downtown Austin. Capital MetroRail offers service Monday through Friday between Leander and downtown Austin, and from Lakeline to downtown on Saturday.

Parking Assistance

Can't find a place to park? Try these helpful resources:

Luxe app offers on-demand parking and valet. The valet will come to you and park your vehicle for you.

ParkMe partnered with the city of Austin to help drivers find available parking downtown.

Pedicabs

Throughout Austin, you will find local cyclists, licensed by the City of Austin, pulling people in carts around the city. Contact one of the following companies for an interesting and fun way to see the city:

Capital Pedicabs

Easy Rider Pedicabs

Metrocycle Pedicabs

Red Devil Rides

Roadkill Pedicab

Rideshare

These rideshare companies are available to offer travelers a ride around town:

Fare

Fasten

Get Me

InstaRyde

RideAustin

Wingz

zTrip

Taxis & Shuttles

Taxis and shuttles offer a fast way to get around Austin. Request a ride with one of the following:

Austin Cab

Lone Star Cab

Yellow Cab

Super Shuttle